

DEPARTMENT OF LIBERAL ARTS 人文學科

The Liberal Arts curriculum at the Academy is an integral part of the Bachelor of Fine Arts (Honours) and Bachelor of Music (Honours) programmes. Comprising courses in the humanities, natural and social sciences and the arts, the curriculum is designed to enhance the development of articulate and reflective art practitioners.

Through courses offered by the Department of Liberal Arts Studies and complemented by additional Academy-wide electives offered by the Schools within their respective disciplines, students are expected to be cognizant of significant political, economic, social and cultural issues in contemporary society.

Students will also gain understanding of their potentials and roles as performing artists, and develop necessary skills to build professional careers and handle administrative aspects of art production.
