

THE HONG KONG ACADEMY FOR PERFORMING ARTS

*Postgraduate
Undergraduate and Post-secondary
Programmes*

UNDERGRADUATE PROGRAMME STRUCTURE

The four-year undergraduate programmes provide students with practice-based professional education in the areas of study encompassing Chinese Opera, Dance, Drama, Film and Television, Music, and Theatre and Entertainment Arts. The programmes range from 130 to 136 credits, with the exception of Bachelor of Fine Arts (Honours) Degree in Chinese Opera (Cantonese Opera Performance) programme which has 138 credits. The programmes aim to develop students with a significant body of knowledge, skills, and competencies in relevant disciplines in order to prepare them for professional careers regionally and internationally.

Graduates are expected to demonstrate comprehension, creative and intelligent engagement with forms, practices, techniques, traditions, histories, and applications of performance and production in support of established practices in their discipline. They should have possessed the following attributes:

- > Professional and Creative Artists
- > Reflective Practitioners
- > Inter-disciplinary Collaborators
- > Effective Communicators
- > Lifelong Learners
- > Global Citizens

Their work is expected to be informed by ideas and practice of their discipline.

POST-SECONDARY PROGRAMME STRUCTURE

The two-year and one-year post-secondary programmes can be divided into two categories: the first one is feeders to the Undergraduate programmes of the Academy. They are structured to impart a broad understanding of and develop skills in the students' chosen performing arts/ technical arts field in preparation for their further studies at undergraduate level at the Academy. The second is suitable for those students who seek for professional performance training and to prepare them for pursuing professional careers in their chosen disciplines best suited to their artistic backgrounds.
