

The Hong Kong Academy for Performing Arts emphasises the partnership with the community to promote arts development, education and arts accessibility. A Memorandum of Understanding was signed between the Academy and Arts with the Disabled Association Hong Kong (ADAHK) to foster the strategic and long-term collaboration in a wide range of areas, such as advocating arts accessibility, inclusive arts and artistic development for people with disabilities.

PROMOTION OF ARTISTS WITH DISABILITY DEVELOPMENT FUND

Application deadline: 6 November 2020

In furtherance of the joint effort, the Academy worked together with ADAHK to promote the meaningful Artists with Disability Development Fund to students of the Academy. Funded by Lee Hysan Foundation, the fund aims at financing and assisting aspiring young people with disabilities for local or overseas arts studies or specific development path in the arts. Eligible youngsters and community members are also welcome to apply. Deadline for application is 6 November 2020, and please find more details from here.

HIGHLIGHT VIDEO OF THE ARTS ACCESSIBILITY WORKSHOPS

☰  HKAPA SRCE

For people with different abilities, arts can be accessible by activating different senses and using different means. The Academy partnered with ADAHK to hold two inspiring Arts Accessibility Workshops. What are the secrets behind arts accessibility? How can we jointly achieve it for people with disabilities to enjoy arts? A video is now available in this link to highlight the important moments and messages.

The video will let you know more about the impact for advocating arts accessibility to performing arts students and the public, such as the significances to practise arts accessibility, and the inspiration the participants gained to develop their own professions.

